The Little Box of Memoirs

5 in 5 / Interface Studio/ Isadora

Intro:

“Dad complains that you talk to mom everyday but you never call him, and if we earned one dollar for each time mom asks about you, we would all be living in the upper west side, in front of the Central Park.”

Main goal: Try to make the distance shorter...

Constraints:

- Try to make objects that can make connection although the distance;
- We have five projects to do and five senses, this is not a coincidence. So each project must relate to sight, smell, touch, hearing or taste;
- To dedicate each one of them.
